We've taken the traditional beverage tasting, fermented it into a new form, extracted the snobbishness and brewed it with a whole lot of fun! This experience has class and something for all.

Overview:

Centered around blind tastings, each guest will receive a device to record their answers to the multiple choice questions about each beverage – aromas, flavours, body and more. Each answer earns points, shown on a live leaderboard making the competition heat up!

With twists of sabotaging your fellow tasters and some sneaky bonus games, it's the perfect mix that will get even the most skeptical engaged. High energy and hilarious, Out of the Bottle is for the self-confessed tasting snob and the average punter a-like.

Available as (feel free to Mix & Match!):

Highlights:

- Fun: Designed to get everyone participating. Easy to understand and there are so many ways to be involved!
- Memorable: Your team will walk away with great memories.
- Different: Uniquely driven by competition and game elements.

- Digital device for each player or team to record their answers
- Experienced facilitators to guide the group through the experience
- Themed invite to engage your team

“It was such an amazing team bonding event, combining the fun of testing our own senses of smell and taste with wines, to the competitive interaction it provided with the obstacles and overall points leaderboard. What a fun and inspiring way for a group of people to get to know each other even better. Many thanks for suggesting it and hosting it.”
